

NON-EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTION LICENSE

By submitting the Request For Proposals web form, submitter (“the speaker”) grants to the Southeast Linuxfest Foundation (“the foundation”) the non-exclusive right to reproduce and distribute your presentation in electronic format via the World Wide Web, as well as the right to migrate or convert your presentation to any medium or format for the purpose of preservation and/or continued distribution.

The foundation acknowledges that this is a non-exclusive license; any copyrights in the presentation remain with the speaker or other copyright holder and subsequent uses of the submitted material by that person(s) are not restricted by this license. Speaker also grants any associated rights necessary to reproduce and distribute audio, video, images, or excerpts of the presentation.

The speaker represents that the presentation covered by this license is his/her original work and that he/she has the right to grant this license to the foundation. The speaker further represents that the presentation does not, to the best of his/her knowledge, infringe upon any third-party’s copyright.

If this presentation is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by any agency or organization other than the foundation, the speaker represents that he/she has fulfilled any right of review or other obligation required by contract or agreement with the supporting entity.

The foundation will make the presentation available to the public using a Creative Commons Attribution Share-Alike license accompanied by a copyright statement. You can find details on this license here: <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/3.0/>

This release adapted from:

<http://library.duke.edu/blogs/scholcomm/wp-content/uploads/2007/02/sample-distribution-license.doc>